PETITIONING THE COURT

[X] To issue a warrant
[ ] To issue a summons

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number    Nature of Noncompliance

1. The offender has violated the standard supervision condition which states 'You shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.'

On October 14, 2012, the offender was arrested by the Monroe Township Gloucester County Police Department and charged with Resisting Arrest and Obstruction of Justice. An interview with the offender's wife revealed that the police responded to the offender's residence in response to his being drunk and belligerent. Mrs. Feby averred that the offender had imbibed over 2 liters of vodka on October 14, 2012, and was being verbally abusive to her and their children. When the police arrived he became assaultive with the officers who were trying to escort him out of the home. The case is pending in Gloucester County Superior Court and the offender is currently being held in lieu of $25,000 cash bail. There is no Court date scheduled at this time..

2. The offender has violated the special supervision condition which states 'ALCOHOL/DRUG TESTING AND TREATMENT

You shall refrain from the illegal possession and use of drugs, including prescription medication not prescribed in your name, and the use of alcohol, and shall submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to ensure compliance. It is further ordered that you shall submit to evaluation and treatment, on an outpatient or inpatient basis, as approved by the U.S. Probation Office. You shall abide by the rules of any program and shall remain in treatment until satisfactorily discharged by the Court. You shall alert all medical professionals of any prior substance abuse history, including any prior history of prescription drug abuse. The Probation Officer shall supervise your compliance with this condition.

On October 15, 2012, the offender's wife, Meredith Feby was interviewed and she averred that the offender had been clean and sober for nearly 8 months and then within the last four days he began drinking excessively. She advised over the last several days he started drinking 1-2 liters of vodka per day and would be verbally abusive toward her, and her daughter and their children. Mrs. Feby advised that on October 14, 2012, the offender consumed 2 full liters of vodka and was very belligerent so she called the police and sought a restraining order.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Respectfully submitted,
